8 PACTOOL INTERNATIONAL LTD.,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 KETT TOOL COMPANY, INC., et al.,

12 Defendants.

CASE NO. C06-5367BHS

ORDER DENYING PACTOOL'S
MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT OF LITERAL
INFRINGEMENT

13
14 This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff PacTool International Ltd.'s
15 ("PacTool") motion for summary judgment of literal infringement (Dkt. 243). The Court 16 has reviewed the briefs filed in support of and in opposition to the motion and the 17 remainder of the file and hereby denies the motion for the reasons stated herein.

18 I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

19 On June 29, 2006, PacTool filed a complaint against Kett alleging patent
20 infringement. Dkt. 1. On April 8, 2010, PacTool filed a First Amended Complaint
21 ("FAC") against Defendants Kett and H. Rowe Hoffman alleging patent infringement.
22 Dkt. 63.

23 On March 25, 2010, Pactool filed a motion for partial summary judgment of literal
24 infringement. Dkt. 58. On April 12, 2010, Kett replied. Dkt. 66. On April 16, 2010, 25 Pactool replied. Dkt. 71. On January 31, 2011, the Court granted in part and denied in 26 part PacTool's motion. Dkt. 148.

1 On September 13, 2011, Pactool filed another motion for summary judgment of 2 literal infringement. Dkt. 243. On October 3, 2011, Kett responded. Dkt. 249. On 3 October 7, 2011, Pactool replied. Dkt. 253.

4 II. DISCUSSION

5 A. Standard

6 Summary judgment is proper only if the pleadings, the discovery and disclosure
7 materials on file, and any affidavits show that there is no genuine issue as to any material
8 fact and that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c).
9 The moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law when the nonmoving party
10 fails to make a sufficient showing on an essential element of a claim in the case on which 11 the nonmoving party has the burden of proof. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323
12 (1986). There is no genuine issue of fact for trial where the record, taken as a whole,
13 could not lead a rational trier of fact to find for the nonmoving party. Matsushita Elec.
14 Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986) (nonmoving party must 15 present specific, significant probative evidence, not simply “some metaphysical doubt”).
16 See also Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e). Conversely, a genuine dispute over a material fact exists if 17 there is sufficient evidence supporting the claimed factual dispute, requiring a judge or 18 jury to resolve the differing versions of the truth. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477
19 U.S. 242, 253 (1986); T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors Ass’n, 809 F.2d
20 626, 630 (9th Cir. 1987).

22 The determination of the existence of a material fact is often a close question. The 23 Court must consider the substantive evidentiary burden that the nonmoving party must 24 meet at trial – e.g., a preponderance of the evidence in most civil cases. Anderson, 477
25 U.S. at 254; T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc., 809 F.2d at 630. The Court must resolve any factual
26 issues of controversy in favor of the nonmoving party only when the facts specifically 27 attested by that party contradict facts specifically attested by the moving party. The 28

1 nonmoving party may not merely state that it will discredit the moving party's evidence at 2 trial, in the hopes that evidence can be developed at trial to support the claim. T.W. Elec.
3 Serv., Inc., 809 F.2d at 630 (relying on Anderson, 477 U.S. at 255). Conclusory,
4 nonspecific statements in affidavits are not sufficient, and missing facts will not be
5 presumed. Lujan v. Nat'l Wildlife Fed'n, 497 U.S. 871, 888-89 (1990).

6 B. Pactool's Motion

7 To establish literal infringement, a patentee must show by the preponderance of 8 the evidence that the accused device contains each limitation of an asserted claim. Amgen
9 Inc. v. F. Hoffman-La Roche Ltd., 580 F.3d 1340, 1374 (Fed. Cir. 2009).

10 In this case, Pactool moves for entry of summary judgment on literal infringement
11 because it argues that there are no questions of material fact as to whether Kett's first
12 design tools meet every limitation of the Pactool's asserted claims. Dkt. 243 at 9. Kett 13 contends that there are numerous questions of material fact that preclude entry of 14 summary judgment, including whether Kett's tools contain limitations that are defined by 15 words of degree. See Dkt. 249 at 8-12. As more fully discussed in the Claim
16 Construction Order, words of degree require an objective standard for measuring that 17 particular degree. With regard to the instant motion, Pactool has failed to meet either 18 element for entry of summary judgment.

19 First, Pactool has failed to show that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law.
20 There is no evidence in the record regarding either the failure rate of the prior art or 21 objective evidence of a clean or even edge cut. Without providing evidence on these 22 elements of their claims of infringement, Pactool has failed to meet its initial burden of 23 proving that Kett's devices either provide clean edge cuts or inhibit premature failure or 24 wear.
25
26
27
28

1 Second, Pactool has failed to show an absence of material questions of fact as to
2 every element of their infringement claims. Even if Pactool had submitted objective data
3 or opinion as to the words of degree limitations, Pactool has failed to submit evidence that
4 Kett's tools contain the disclosed functional limitations. Pactool, however, argues that 5 evidence is not necessary because the functional limitations are inherently shown if 6 Pactool shows that Kett's tools include the structural limitations. This argument is not
7 only unsupported by binding patent and summary judgment case law, but also ignores
8 pertinent questions of material fact. For example, there exist questions of fact regarding 9 the motors that Kett actually uses, or used, and whether those motors experienced
10 premature wear or failure without the spacings disclosed in the patents. Kett is the only 11 party to submit any evidence on these issues and the evidence shows that it is difficult to 12 (1) obtain an objective standard and (2) determine whether a tool fails to experience
13 premature wear or failure. See Dkt. 191, Declaration of Nicholas C. Tarkany.

14
15 With regard to the clean or smooth edge cut limitation, Pactool has provided at 16 least some evidence that Kett's tools read on this limitation. See Dkt. 172-1, Exhs. 1-7
17 (Kett's marketing literature). This evidence, however, does not overcome Pactool's other 18 failures on the instant motion.

19 III. ORDER

20 Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that PacTool's motion for summary judgment
21 of literal infringement (Dkt. 243) is DENIED.
